NOTICE TO ALL EMPLOYERS ANTICIPATING PRODUCING MOTION PICTURES IN BRITISH COLUMBIA
UNDER THE BRITISH COLUMBIA AND YUKON COUNCIL OF FILM UNIONS
MASTER AGREEMENT

This is to request that when you are filming in British Columbia, you instruct your Assistant Directors to "police" the meal lines during meal breaks to assure that the crew is served and moved through the line efficiently.

During negotiations with the B.C. and Yukon Council of Film Unions earlier this year, the negotiating producers agreed to informally assist in assuring that the crew receive adequate time to eat during the meal periods by simply keeping the meal line moving and open for any crew members on their lunch breaks. This may mean asking visitors to the set or location to wait until the crew has been served as well as instructing certain crew members to refrain from excessive conversation while moving through the line.

Your cooperation and assistance on this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Stephen C. Carroll
